Bill Boyle Disputes Charges

Admits Taking Cases While Acting Head Of Party; Denies It Was Improper Act

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—William M. Boyle, Jr., acknowledged today that he accepted eight law cases involving government agencies—while serving as "acting chairman" of the Democratic national committee.

From the witness chair of a Senate investigations subcommittee, Boyle heatedly disputed, however, suggestions by Republican senators that it was improper for him to do this.

He said he was a practicing lawyer at that time and had a perfect right to represent any client before any government agency or in any court.

Never Asked Agency Favor

"I never asked a favor from a government agency in my life," Boyle declared.

The cases in question were prior to August, 1949, when Boyle, former Kansas City lawyer, formally became the Democratic national chairman.

The senators turned to these cases after hammering questions first about Boyle's statement that he sold his law practice in 1949 to Max Siskind, Washington lawyer, for $150,000.

Boyle insisted the sale was entirely proper and swore he had never used his political power for personal profit.

Leaning across the table separating them in the crowded hearing room, Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) told Boyle nevertheless that the way the law cases were transferred to Siskind, without any formal sales contract, "implies that there was an arrangement that you were to receive fees" in the guise of installment payments.

McClellan said, too, that it could "give rise" to the belief that it was an arrangement for Boyle to do the work and for Boyle to get $150,000.

Boyle said it wasn't that way at all.

Blandly, he told the senators at one point that he didn't believe that government agencies yielded to political influence.

Senator Mundt (R-S.D.) shook his head at that. He said he had got a different idea from the testimony he has heard before congressional committees.

Denies Lithofold Aid

Boyle specifically denied, too, that he used political influence in behalf of $565,000 of RFC loans to the American Lithofold Corp.

He acknowledged that he did make an appointment for R. J. Blauner, president of the St. Louis printing firm, to see RFC Chairman Harley Hise about the loans on February 28, 1949.

Boyle said he thought it not only proper but a duty for an official or staff member of the national committee to help a person who wants an appointment with a government official or member of Congress.

Asked if he had received any gifts from American Lithofold, Boyle said Cecil Green, Washington representative of the printing firm, once gave him two daughters a camera as a Christmas present. He said he couldn't recall the year.

No Private Practice Now

Boyle insisted repeatedly that he has not engaged in private law practice since becoming a salaried official of the Democratic party in 1949 and has received no fees from legal practice since then.

McClellan asked Boyle whether he "ever forwarded a client" to Siskind after going on the party's payroll. He also asked whether Siskind ever collected a fee from a client and split it with Boyle.

"No sir," Boyle replied to both queries.

McClellan dwelt on the absence of any formal contract for the $150,000 sale of Boyle's practice to Siskind, and commented: "It may not be much money for a lawyer in Washington but it is a lot for a country boy."

He headed at another point, "The way this transaction was handled can give rise in the minds of some that this was not a complete severance and you expected to get from Mr. Siskind's practice the sum of $150,000."

Glass Company Official Here

At a regular meeting in New York City on September 20th the board of directors of the Pittsburgh-Corning Corporation elected L. O. Griffith to the office of vice president.

Following his election to the post Mr. Griffith announced that he will for the next several months at least, spend a major portion of his time in Sedalia.

The corporation is starting to increase its output for Foamlas at its plant here to help meet the unprecedented demand that has developed for this new form of thermal insulation.

Moreover, the company has tentative plans for the erection of additional facilities in Sedalia to manufacture an entirely new product which has been under development for the past three or four years.

Stassen Quarters To be Opened

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(P)—A St. Louis Republican has thrown Harold E. Stassen's hat into the ring for the GOP nomination for president.

Elroy W. Bromwich, former state treasurer of the Republican party, announced yesterday the first Stassen-for-President headquarters in the nation will be opened in St. Louis October 1.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, now is president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Bromwich said he and other Republicans are certain Stassen is the only man with whom the Republicans can win in 1952.

"We know that despite the recent speculation concerning the intentions of General Eisenhower, the magnitude of Eisenhower's present job and his importance to the security of the world will not permit him to be a candidate."

Speaks to Club On Guatemala

Rev. Waggoner in Kiwanis Talk; F. W. Rucker Coming

A talk on the life, customs and religion in Guatemala was given by the Rev. Ralph A. Waggoner, executive secretary of the Missouri Synod, Presbyterian church, before the Sedalia Kiwanis club meeting in Bothwell hotel Thursday noon.

The speaker, who was introduced by program chairman A. H. Wilks, recently visited the Central American country where he noted the acceptance of religious influences by the people who in the days of the Mayan empire had one of the most advanced civilizations in the northern and southern hemispheres.

Members of the American Girls baseball league teams who play tonight at Liberty park for the benefit of the Stadium Fund were introduced to the Kiwanians, Joe Benson, drive chairman, spoke briefly about progress of the advanced gifts solicitations.

Arthur Klang reported on the successful Kids' Day program promoted by the Kiwanis club.

Announcement was made that National Newspaper Week would be observed by the club at the club meeting next Thursday when Frank W. Rucker, of the Missouri School of Journalism, Columbia, will be the speaker. Mr. Rucker, before joining the teaching staff of the university, was co-owner and manager of the Independence Examiner, one of the most successful small town newspapers in the United States. Members who plan to bring guests to this meeting were asked to notify Secretary Pinkney Miller in advance of the meeting.

Club guests Thursday were: Baker, Atterbury, St. Louis, with Leland La Velle, and the Rev. Robert Waggoner, a Marshall Kiwanian.

Cut Brooklyn Lead To a Half Game

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Boston slashed Brooklyn's National league lead to a half game over the idle New York Giants today, with a 4-3 victory that snapped Preacher Roe's 10-game win streak. Empire Frank Dascoli chased catcher Roy Campanella and then cleared the Dodger bench after an eighth-inning argument when Bob Addis was called safe at home with the winning run.

Cheer For King After His Operation

FAIRLOF, England, Sept. 27.—(P)—Fifteen months ago Clement Price Thomas removed part of Jill Stebbings' lung.

On Sunday the same surgeon performed a similar operation on King George VI.

Today, eight-year-old Jill sat down and wrote her king a very thoughtful letter.

"Dear King," it said, "Don't worry. Look what Mr. Price Thomas did for me."

"I am writing to tell you not to worry as I had a serious lung operation done by him. Now I am fit and well."

"He is a kind and clever man. Love, Jill Stebbings."

Pettis County Taxpayers Can Figure on Total Tax Rate For This Year Right Here

Just how much will your taxes be, come November 1 and it's time to make your annual settlement with the Pettis county collector?

If you know the assessed valuation of your property, you can soon figure your tax bill. Just find the necessary figures below, fill in the table at the right and do a bit of quick addition.

To start off with, there are a couple of figures paid by everyone — and each pays the same amount. One of these is the six-cent levy for the state which is collected by the county. That's the first figure on the table. The second figure is the county's 50-cent rate for general revenues.

Since the county has no bonded indebtedness, there are no bond taxes to be added this year.

The other rates are flexible, although there is a 35-cent road tax that everyone pays. Some, however, pay more than the 35-cent rate.

Road District Rates

So, if you own property in one of the following districts, use the rate that is listed for that district.

Jacquim Held On Charge of Slaying Wife

Accused of Killing Her on Afternoon Of June 21

Earl Jacquim, 39, charged with first degree murder in connection with the throat-slashing, gun shooting murder of his wife Mrs. Belma Jacquim, 33, on the afternoon of June 21, was held for the October term of criminal court at a preliminary hearing held today.

The hearing was held before Magistrate W. W. Blain who bound Jacquim over to the criminal court without bond.

Four witnesses were called to testify. Francis R. Farlow, 1327 West Main, Police Officer Herman Hoehns, Dr. J. M. Rodeman, who is the deputy coroner to Dr. C. G. Stauffacher, coroner, and Thomas "Tommy" Miller, 1321 South Ohio.

Farlow in his statement explained of seeing part of the incident. He told of hearing a shot and then seeing Jacquim chasing his wife and striking her on the head with the butt of a gun he had. He said he summoned the police.

Officer Hoehns told of answering the call with Officer George Brown. He told of finding the body of Mrs. Jacquim lying in the dirt driveway of John Chapin, 1215 Spring, and Jacquim standing to the north of the body bleeding at the neck. He told of ordering Jacquim to drop the knife he held in his hands. Also of finding the gun broken to bits lying on the ground near the body.

Dr. Rodeman Testifies

Dr. Rodeman in his testimony told of going to the scene and viewing the body. He said the woman had gunshot wounds in the arm between the elbow and shoulder, several lacerations ranging from 2 1/2 to 4 inches long on her head, and her throat was slashed from about the middle part of the neck in front around the left side to the vertebra. A vein and artery were severed.

Dr. Rodeman also told of a visit to the county jail that evening at which time he said Jacquim asked "is my wife hurt very much?"

The doctor also told of hearing Jacquim give a statement regarding the killing to Prosecuting Attorney Mike Bogutski. At this point of the questioning of Dr. Rodeman, Prosecuting Attorney Bogutski read into the record the statement given by Jacquim at the county jail on the evening of June 21.

Miller as Witness

In the statement the name of "Tommy" was mentioned by Jacquim and it was later revealed the party referred to was Thomas "Tommy" Miller, who was called as a witness.

Miller stated he had known Mrs. Jacquim about a week, but knew nothing of her family troubles. He said he had been with her once in company with her brother and his girl friend at the Drive-In theatre, and had met her at Duffy's Tavern on Ohio between 15 and 16th when introduced by her brother.

As to the facts in the case, Miller said he knew nothing more than what appeared in the newspapers.

At the conclusion of Miller's testimony, Prosecuting Attorney Bogutski asked the defendant be bound over to the October term of criminal court without bond.

Fred E. Wesner, representing Jacquim, stated to the court he felt the defendant was entitled to bond. After some discussion Judge Blain said, "I am afraid if I fixed a bond, it would be so big you couldn't give it."

Mr. Bogutski again objected to a bond, and recited evidence in the case, Judge Blain then ordered the binding over of the defendant and refused the defendant bond.

Jacquim was represented in court by Mr. Wesner and Joseph T. Tate of Owensville, Mo.

Enthusiasm For Success of Stadium Drive on Today

The Stadium Day Drive with its goal of $30,000 to add to the $100,000 Jaynes Foundation for a recreational center started off with a kick-off breakfast this morning and lots of enthusiasm.

About 50 of the workers attended the breakfast which was presided over by Joe Benson, general chairman of the drive.

The principal speaker at the breakfast was Chester Wolfe, publicity chairman of the drive, who gave a talk on salesmanship.

First, Mr. Wolf said, you must believe in the thing you sell and today you have one of the finest things to sell. A woman whose love was so great for her home town that she left to it her entire fortune, he said, and what will the citizens of Sedalia do for her memory?

Stressing the art of salesmanship, Mr. Wolfe told the story of the golden key, when a man, to judge the ability of his salesmen gave each a blank golden key to sell. How to sell the key was a problem to the salesmen, but one man, he said, had an idea. He took the key and had it made to fit the door of his own home, then he sold the idea that every home should have a golden key, with which all the family could open the door to a golden home life within. The idea went over and today there is a great business that makes golden keys.

This is a golden story you have to sell, Mr. Wolfe pointed out, a story of the golden gift of Jennie Jaynes Lewis, from which will come golden hours of recreation.

A check for $100.00 was presented to the foundation from the Smith-Cotton high school activity fund.

Successful Advance Drive

The advance drive for gifts was very good, with two teams having 100 per cent success. They were Z. Lyle Brown and Dick Snow, and A. W. Haller and Jack Cunningham.

The boys and girls of Smith-Cotton high school, too, have been working with excellent results. In addition they staged a big parade in the downtown district today.

Even the grade schools are doing their share, with one school Mark Twain, turning in $100 this morning.

This is the big day, but in case you couldn't get your gift in today, there is still plenty of time to help swell the fund. The more money put into the fund, the better Sedalia is going to be, and if it overflows on the recreational center there are many more things for a future greater Sedalia.

Documents Produced by Sen. McCarthy

Opposition to Jessup Voiced By Witness

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) today produced copies of a batch of documents which he said support his contention that ambassador-at-large Philip C. Jessup has "an unusual affinity for Communist causes."

McCarthy took the material, bound with a cover sheet in deep pink color, before a Senate foreign relations subcommittee studying President Truman's nomination of Jessup as an American delegate to the United Nations. Jessup, a top adviser to Secretary of State Acheson, has served previously as a delegate.

McCarthy was the first witness as the subcommittee started public hearings on the Jessup appointment. McCarthy told reporters the material he was presenting to the group "should persuade the Senate to refuse to confirm Jessup."

Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) said Jessup might take the witness chair late in the day to reply to McCarthy. The ambassador already has denied similar accusations against him by McCarthy last year.

McCarthy's 28-page compilation contained some copies of documents he has presented before in criticism of Jessup.

Drew on Testimony

He also drew heavily from testimony which has been given by various witnesses who have appeared this year before the Senate's internal security subcommittee.

Nowhere in his prepared brief did McCarthy specifically call for Senate rejection of the Jessup nomination. He had said he would "pretty much let these documents speak for themselves."

An introductory statement in McCarthy's brief said "the documents contained herein do not even remotely constitute the entire picture of Ambassador Jessup's record, but merely cover some of the highlights of the evidence in the Jessup case."

McCarthy said that "after the evidence (which he set forth) was brought to the attention of the President, he gave Jessup top secret clearance to all atomic and hydrogen bomb information and appointed him as U. S. delegate to the United Nations."

One of McCarthy's exhibits dealt with testimony by retired Brig. Gen. Louis J. Fortier before the internal security subcommittee last week.

Reference to Red China

Formerly an army intelligence officer in the Far East, Fortier said Jessup told him early last year that U. S. recognition of Red China was imminent. Fortier quoted Jessup as having said further that recognition would not mean approval of the nature or character of the Communist regime.

In his statement to the foreign relations group today, McCarthy said Jessup advised, according to Fortier's testimony, "that Communist China would and should be recognized by the United States."

McCarthy said testimony before the McCarran group so far, and documents from the IPR files have "already shown that this organization was controlled by secret members of the Communist party."

McCarthy has contended that Jessup was aware of that.

"More than 60 officials of the IPR have already been identified under oath as members of the Communist party," McCarthy declared.

Among other things, McCarthy told the foreign relations group his documents show "Jessup's affiliation with six organizations officially cited as Communist fronts."

He produced copies of lettersheads which he said demonstrated that Jessup at one time or another had some association with:

The National Emergency Council for Democratic Rights, the American Russian Institute, the Communist Party, and the American People's Party.

The President declared the statements should be accessible to the public, asserting it would "help to prevent illegal or improper conduct, and at the same time protect government officers from unfounded suspicions."

Miss Anna Rose Baker is Chosen as Queen Candidate

Miss Anna Rose Baker, 21, beautiful young blue-eyed blonde, was chosen Sedalia's candidate for American Royal Queen of 1951 at the contest Wednesday night at the Fox theatre sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Baker, wearing a dress of vivid red taffeta fashioned with very full skirt, wore her attractive smile throughout the contest which added to her charm. Her shoulder length hair was tied back on one side with a velvet ribbon of a shade matching her dress.

The judges were Miss Edna Baumhoffer of the Jefferson City Business and Professional Women's club, McCormick Wilson and Charlie Edmondson, both of the Jefferson City Junior Chamber of Commerce. There was a difficult task selecting the loveliest from 11 unusually pretty girls.

Four of the contestants were called back on the stage a second time. They were Miss Baker, Miss Stella Sperber, Miss Anna Self and Miss Anna Lee Harvey.

Miss Sperber Alternate

Chosen as the alternate was Miss Stella Sperber, dressed in black velvet with rhinestone necklace. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sperber, route 3.

Predict Taft and Truman Choices

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—(P)—America's top editors predicted President Truman and Senator Taft will be nominated for the presidency next year and that Truman will be re-elected.

Further, they say General Eisenhower could beat either if he chooses to run on either ticket.

Delegates to the annual meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors association voted 115 to 7 that Truman will be the Democratic standard bearer. The seven votes went to Chief Justice Fred Vinson.

They voted 91 to 32 that Truman could beat Taft—whom they gave a 75 to 41 margin for the GOP nomination over Eisenhower. If General MacArthur should be the Republican choice, the editors predicted 79 to 31 that Truman could defeat him.

The editors balloted 105 to 13 that Eisenhower could whip Truman, and 103 to 10 that the general could beat Taft.

For Report on All Income

President Asks Congress For Law On Employees

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—President Truman asked Congress today to require its members and all top government officials—including generals, admirals and judges—to give a public accounting each year of their total income.

Mr. Truman said legislation along that line would help prevent "improper conduct" and "unfounded suspicions."

In a lengthy message, sent to the Capitol in the midst of a Senate inquiry into charges of political influence in government loans, the President said:

"In operations as large as those of our government today, with so much depending on official action in the Congress and in the executive agencies, there are bound to be attempts by private citizens or special interest groups to gain their ends by illegal or improper means."

Mr. Truman said he would favor including "the principle that national party officials and employees be among those persons required to file annual statements."

Recommendation

The President's own party chairman, William M. Boyle, Jr., was before the Senate's investigating subcommittee at the moment.

Specifically, the President recommended to Congress the prompt enactment of a law—"which will require full-time civilian presidential appointees, including members of the federal bench; all elected officers of the federal government, including members of the Congress; and all other top officials and employees of the three branches of the government—say those receiving salaries of $10,000 or more, plus flag and general officers of the armed services—to file annually a statement of their total incomes, including amounts over and above their government salaries, and the source of this outside income."

Consideration should be given, the President said, to requirements that government employees making less than $10,000 should make such statements if their outside income exceeds $1,000 a year.

He added:

"Some items which are not ordinarily counted as income, such as gifts and loans, should be included in the statements filed under this statute."

"Penalties for willful violation of this statute should be equivalent to those for violation of the laws relating to the filing of income tax returns."

The President declared the statements should be accessible to the public, asserting it would "help to prevent illegal or improper conduct, and at the same time protect government officers from unfounded suspicions."

Bombs on Reds In Slopes

Savage Attacks In Battering of Artillery in Eastern Korea

By John Randolph
U. N. COMMAND, Korea, Sept. 27.—(P)—Navy and Air Force fighter-bombers today smashed home savage attacks on Communist artillery dug in on the rugged mountain slopes of eastern Korea.

Thirty-two F-51 Mustangs and 24 navy Corsairs dropped napalm fire-bombs and high explosives on Red artillery and mortar positions in the "Heartbreak Ridge" area.

Communist fire slackened off at once.

In the third straight day of aerial dogfights, 34 F198 Sabre jets tangled with 50 Russian-type MIG jet fighters and damaged two of the Red planes. One Allied warplane was damaged but returned safely to base.

The Far East Air Forces reported a three-day battle score: Reds' losses—Five shot down, two probably destroyed, 19 damaged.

Allies—One U.S. jet destroyed; one Australian jet damaged but returned to base.

Hits on the MIGs were reported by Col. Benjamin S. Preston of Hollywood, Fla., and Maj. William T. Wicker of Shreveport, La.

Red artillery and mortar fire still fell on the positions of American and French soldiers of the U. S. 23rd Infantry regiment north of Yangu. The Red barrage, one of the heaviest of the Korean campaign, kept the U.N. infantry away from the strategic high ground on the north-south ridge line.

Sporadic Red fire hit Allied positions atop a vital peak west of Heartbreak.

South Koreans in Action

South Korean troops on the east coast made a comparatively small-scale attack on a hill north-west of Kaesong. They met some Communist resistance.

At last report the South Koreans were trying to maneuver through heavy Communist fire west of the hill.

U.S. Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers and light bombers struck more than 50 Communist rail vehicles and attacked up to 2,500 Red trucks. One of the largest truck concentrations was in the Kunchon area, 20 to 30 miles west of Kaesong. Allied pilots said traffic has been heavy there for nearly a week.

After their one challenge to UN air superiority Thursday, Red jets shied clear of aerial combat. There was one brief skirmish over Sinanju, but no damage was done to either side.

In the one action that produced results, dogfights swirled from 30,000 to 10,000 feet. They lasted 25 minutes.

Promotion to Walter Pregge

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 27.—(P)—Louis J. Hensley, vice president, secretary and comptroller of the Kansas City Southern railway, will retire next Monday.

The 72-year-old official began work with the line in 1903 as a $50-a-month assistant bill clerk.

W. N. Derramus, president of the line, announced that Walter F. Pregge, Shreveport, La., auditor for the Louisiana and Arkansas Railway company, a subsidiary, will come to Kansas City to head the accounting department of both lines.

Pregge, a native of Sedalia, Mo., began his railroad service in 1906 in the mechanical department of the St. Louis Southwestern railway at Texarkana, Ark. He joined the L. and A. in 1909 and became auditor in 1935.

Verdict in Suit To Defendant

The jury returned a split verdict, but found in favor of William B. Couhig in a $3,000 suit filed by James P. Quinn against Couhig. The case, which was tried before Judge Dimmitt Hoffman in the circuit court, was over an alleged violation of a contract. Ten jurors found in favor of the defendant.

Quinn alleged a contract was entered into between him and Couhig, whereby Couhig would remodel the interior of a store and the front of the building with structural glass.

The case was tried several months ago and resulted in a hung jury.

The jury was composed of Melvin Turner, Allen Ragar, Paul Fiedler, D. F. Wasson, Mrs. Jack Rader, Mrs. C. N. Marshall, Guy Brownfield, Virginia Hinkle, Guy Ballew, Wayne Davis, J. S. McVey and W. H. Page.

The plaintiff is represented by his son James Quinn, of Kansas City and Henry C. Salveter and the defendant by William F. Brown and John C. McCloskey.

New Draft Law Puts 1/2-Million Married Men In Line For Service

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—President Truman Wednesday signed new draft regulations making half a million childless married men eligible for military service.

The new regulations are designed to put into effect the draft law enacted by Congress last June.

It narrows military exemptions by making eligible for service married men with only a wife as a dependent, except in cases of extreme hardship.

Brig. Gen. Louis Renfrow, acting director of Selective Service, told newsmen the new regulations make some 500,000 men heretofore deferred, eligible for duty.

Renfrow added that Selective Service hopes to get 200,000 men out of that total. This estimate may be high because the Army's rejection rate heretofore has been about 53 per cent, and various other causes affect eligibility.

Change of Venue In Damage Suit

A $20,000 damage suit, filed in the Pettis County Circuit Court in midsummer, Sandra Sue Savage, four-year-old girl, vs. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meyer, has been filed in the Saline County Circuit Court on a change of venue.

The plaintiff is suing through her father, as next friend. She allegedly received injuries when she was bitten by a dog May 4, 1951, when she and her father were at the home of the defendants. The petition alleges that the child's face and head were severely bitten and that the dog bit her in the left eye. The plaintiff alleges her features have been disfigured by the dog bites and asks $10,000 in damages.

The second count of the petition charges that the dog's owners permitted the animal to me unmuzzled, which is contrary to a city ordinance regulating the running at large without muzzles of vicious dogs. The plaintiff asks another $10,000 on this charge.

Famed Doctor Goes To Mental Hospital

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 27.—Brain specialist Dr. Perry E. Hewitt, Jr., was ordered committed to a mental hospital today, three weeks after being freed of a manslaughter charge in the death of a patient.

County Judge James L. Powell said he acted on a petition for commitment signed by the doctor's wife Aug. 9.

It was on that date that Mrs. Allene Shuler of Borger, Tex., died after Hewitt's treatment for a headache. He submitted to a mental examination following the incident.

"Dr. Hewitt is a sick man and has been for some time," Mrs. Hewitt said tonight. They have four children.

Judge Powell said the highly-regarded specialist, who only re-

Address to Club Of Schoolmasters

A meeting of the Central Missouri Schoolmasters' club was held at the public school building in Tipton Monday evening. There were 58 men present, including 13 members of the state department of education.

Dinner was served by the members of the Band-Parents' club of Tipton.

Ira E. Grubb, superintendent of the Tipton schools, is president of the association, and Bud Henderson, superintendent of the School of the Osage, is vice president.

An address was given by Dr. Irwin Coile of the state department, his subject being "The Evaluation of the Elementary School."

The club meets at various places over the district the third Monday of each month except during December and May.

At the Tipton meeting, music was furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Mary Louise Lightfoot, who herself played three saxophone solos. Other numbers included a vocal solo by Ruth Milburn and a cornet solo by Robert Russell.

Extension Club Has Election

The Willing Workers Extension club of Blackwater held its regular meeting September 20 at the home of Mrs. Elbert Sprigg and elected officers for the coming year. Twelve members and three visitors were present.

Officers elected included: Mrs. William Clemens, president; Mrs. Louis Roth, vice president; Mrs. Elbert Sprigg, secretary; Mrs. Elliott Morris, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Topel, parliamentarian; Mrs. Ervin Edler, song leader; Mrs. Herman Bonen, game leader.

Following the business meeting, Mr. and Mrs. John Mier reported on their trip to the Mariners national convention at Hastings college, Hastings, Neb.

The Wentworth band is one of the school's show units which stages many public exhibitions during the year, and this year's band is one of the finest that the school has had for some time.

One of the outstanding features of the band is the snap drill that has been developed under direction of the school's commandant, Maj. Frank W. Brown.

Get Service on Movie Stars

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—(P)—Hopalong Cassidy and Frank Sinatra have run afoul of process servers.

A Hollywood press agent, John A. Daley, sued Hopalong, lesser known as William Boyd, for $180,000, alleging that the movie cowboy made $6,000,000 last year and was to have paid Daley three per cent of it under an agreement. Daley wants an accounting, too.

A law firm sued Singer Sinatra for $12,250, claiming he owes that much in fees in his domestic relations litigation with Mrs. Nancy Sinatra. The plaintiff is the firm of Pacht, Tannenbaum and Ross.

Another Hollywood figure, band leader Pete Daily, pleaded innocent, as did his wife Faye, to charges of neglecting their six children. Daily was arrested Oct. 31. Police said they found the children alone when fire started recently in the Daily home in Van Nuys, and that a 13-year-old daughter was in an intoxicated condition.

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Thurs., Sept. 27, 1951 3

Girl's Parents Uphold Teacher

AMBOY, Ill., Sept. 27.—(P)—Stanley W. Gibson, high school teacher who was fired for dating a blonde senior high student, has the support of the girl's parents in his legal battle to regain his job.

The parents of the girl, Joyce Underhile, 17, will testify Saturday at the third session of the public hearing being held by the school board on Gibson's protest against his dismissal.

Gibson, 31 and divorced, was dismissed from his teaching post for dating Miss Underhile last spring. She was valedictorian of the 1951 graduating class and now is a freshman at the University of Illinois.

Gibson has testified at the public hearing that he had from 25 to 50 dates with Miss Underhile, who wears his fraternity pin. They are not engaged, Gibson said, adding "We probably won't even know for sure about that for another two or three years."

Miss Underhile's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Underhile, last night said they approved the dating between their daughter and Gibson.

"We don't believe in choosing friends for our four daughters," they said, "but if we did we couldn't have found anyone better for Joyce." Gibson said they will testify in Gibson's behalf at Saturday's session.

Gibson, who has been a teacher in English at the Amboy high school since 1947, was dismissed after he refused the school board's request to stop dating Miss Underhile. His dismissal is effective November 2.

Townpeople at yesterday's hearing hooted and jeered when board members and the school's dean of girls testified they did not approve of Gibson dating Miss Underhile when she was a student.

Miss Clara Lapprodt, the dean of girls, a spinster and teacher for 30 years, said most of the faculty members agreed with the board that dating a student is not proper conduct for a teacher.

Dinner by Better Homes Club

Mrs. Mary Stephens was hostess to the September meeting of the Beaman Better Homes club with 11 members attending. Visitors were Mrs. Lester Holdner, Mrs. Tom Scott, Mrs. J. W. Harrington and Miss Barbara Berry.

A contributive dinner was served at noon after which the president, Mrs. Walter Eads, presided during the business meeting. The news letter from Miss Catherine Zimmerman was read by Mrs. I. J. Rhoads and officers were elected for the coming year. The hostess then opened her gifts. The next meeting will be on October 5 with Mrs. Sim Bake.

London, England, which completed its first subway in 1900, was the first city in the world to have a subway.

Extension Club at Wellman Home

Mrs. Glenn Wellman was hostess to the La Monte Homemakers Extension club at her home September 21 and at this meeting the new officers for the coming year were elected following the presentation of an interesting program. Thirteen members and two visitors, Mrs. William Sullivan and Sheryl, were present.

A contributive dinner was held and following that and the business session, the program was given. Mrs. George Fichter's letter regarding the health project meeting was read, Mrs. C. E. Carroll, program chairman, spoke on "Safety in the Home" and Mrs. P. Mothershead told of the student loan fund.

Officers elected are: Mrs. Clarence Deaven, president; Mrs. Jimmy Roberts, vice president; Mrs. P. C. Reed, parliamentarian; Mrs. Alfred Brown, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. E. P. Burke, reporter; Mrs. J. F. McKeehan, song and game leader.

A handkerchief shower for Mrs. Dick Lambert, who is moving to Illinois, was held during the social hour.

Lincoln Bust In Costly Gem

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27—(AP)—Abraham Lincoln's features have been carved in perpetuity in a 1,318-carat sapphire valued at $250,000 and owned by James and Harry Kazanjian of Los Angeles.

The "Lincoln in sapphire" has just been completed in black with a few indistinguishable touches of deep translucent blue. It was carved during two years of work from one of the five largest known sapphires in existence.

Three of the other gems will be carved likewise, probably into the likenesses of Andrew Jackson, George Washington and Henry Ford, to provide a series of "great Americans in sapphire." The sapphire bust of Lincoln is not for sale. It was carved by Norman Maness, steel engraver and die maker.

The fifth of the five large gems, "The Star of Queensland," was polished into a star sapphire and is on tour of the United States. The sapphire, of the corundum family, ranks second to the diamond in hardness, and Maness used Diamond grit to shape the head and features. He employed tiny wheels 1/64 inch in diameter for the finishing touches.

The Kazanjian brothers are of Armenian ancestry and, prospering in this country, wished to do something worthwhile with their spectacular gems, which they obtained from Queensland. They say Lincoln and Jackson always have been their heroes and that Ford stands as the symbol of initiative.

Address Group On Fellowship

W. E. Peterson, vice-president of the Shapleigh Hardware Company of St. Louis, and president of the Missouri Congregational Laymen's Fellowship, addressed the members of the Men's Fellowship of the Federated church, Sixth and Osage, at the first dinner meeting of the season Tuesday night.

Mr. Peterson told of the work which has been accomplished by the men's fellowship group at the Webster Groves Congregational church, of which he is a member, and of the many constructive accomplishments of men's church groups throughout the country.

Phillip Hoffman, president, presided over the meeting and the speaker was introduced by Dr. Glen Lindley.

Chet Brown, secretary-manager of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, sang two solo numbers accompanied by Miss Lillian Fox and for an encore they offered a piano duo.

D.S. Lamm announced that the Black Hills Passion Play, sponsored by the Sedalia Rotary Club, would be held at the Liberty Theatre on November 12, 13, 14 and 15, and asked the cooperation of the Federated Men's group in helping to promote this production.

Married Men Childless Are Draft Eligible

Other Important Changes Made in Selective Service

By Jack Rutledge
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—
President Truman yesterday signed new draft regulations which make childless married men eligible for military service.

The presidential action also makes other changes in selective service rules in keeping with the draft law passed by Congress last June. They range from including some aliens in the draft to lowering the volunteer age limit.

Of major effect, however, is the provision to draft childless married men, a change selective service officials believe will make 500,000 men formerly deferred eligible for duty.

Brig. Gen. Louis
Renfrow, acting director of selective service, said about 200,000 of this total may be drafted.

The new rules are for the guidance of local draft boards. Selective service has said a few of them already have been reclassi-fying childless married men.

Men affected would be those within the draft age bracket, 19 to 26 years old.

To prevent last-minute claims for deferment "based only on the registrant's opinion that his wife recently has become pregnant," the new law clearly defines "child."

Under the amended law, "child" means an infant from date of conception. A man may obtain deferment only if his doctor says a child has been conceived before the draftee is ordered to report for induction.

Rent Control For Ft. Wood

Three-county Area Included in the Order Issued

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—
The Office of Rent Stabilization Wednesday ordered rent controls into effect in the vicinity of Ft.
Leonard Wood, in Missouri, Camps
Cooke and Roberts in California and the Moody Air Force Base in Georgia.

Director Tighe E. Woods said the Ft. Leonard Wood area includes Laclede, Phelps and Pulaski counties.

Aug. 1, 1950 Set As Base
The rent office announcement said that the action means rents will be rolled back to levels of
Aug. 1, 1950, in the Camp Cooke,
Camp Roberts and Ft. Leonard
Wood areas and to April 1, 1951, in the Moody Air Base area.

Woods, in announcing the control order, referred to reports by a Senate investigating committee investigating substandard housing and abnormally high rents charged service families near military establishments.

"I will extend similar protection in other military and industrial war areas just as quickly as they are certified as critical" by the Secretary of Defense and Office of Defense Mobilization, Woods said.

He said the Ft. Leonard Wood area had come in for special criticism, and added:
"Log cabins, some of them a century old with only the most primitive sanitary accommodations and antiquated buildings of every type, were called in service with the result that the wives and children of soldiers in many instances were compelled to pay as high as $125 a month for one or two small, dark, unsanitary rooms. In a few instances, unscrupulous landlords added to the soldiers' financial burden by tapping the gas lines and using some of the heat which the military tenant was paying."

Maximum on Drunken Driving

The first maximum punishment assessed under a new city ordinance which permits a jail sentence as well as a fine on a charge of driving a car in the city while intoxicated came this morning.
Terr. Files, La Monte, who appeared before Judge Jerry Trotter, was fined $100 and sentenced to 30-days in the city jail.

Files pleaded not guilty to the charge denying he was intoxicated.
Police officers Elmer Bratton and Perry Franklin, who made the arrest testified at the hearing. The officers told of Files running into the rails of the railroad viaduct on Washington and then followed to near Main and Harrison.

Judge Trotter before announcing sentence asked Files, "This isn't the first time for something like this for you is it Files?" to which the defendant replied, "No."

Delbert W. Danley, Kansas City attorney, representing Files, and disturbing the peace at police headquarters, pleaded guilty before Judge Trotter. After the case was told before the court, a fine of $50.00 and 10-days in jail were assessed.

Billy Wooster, 1219 South Osage, forfeited a $5.00 bond for running a stop sign at Main and Missouri.
Jo Ann Gentry, route 3, forfeited $5.00 for running a stop sign at Main and Grand.

E. A. Wilcox, 1606 West Broadway, forfeited a $10.00 bond for driving 45 miles per hour on west Broadway.

Seven overtime parking bonds of $1.00 each were ordered forfeited by Judge Trotter when defendants failed to appear in court.

en days a week for the

Mrs. Weikel Club President

Mrs. Fred Weikel, who was hostess to the September meeting of the Thursday club at Knob Noster, was elected president of the club for the coming year.

Nine members attended the meeting and selected these officers to serve with Mrs. Weikel: Mrs. A. A. Yokley, vice-president; Mrs. E. A. Ficken, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Malvin, treasurer.

Plans were made for a collection of clothing for Korea. Mrs. George Croll led a program explaining pennies for friendship.

The October 11 meeting will be with Mrs. George Lewis.

Fearless Youth Dies in Action

IHLEN, Minn., Sept. 27 — (AP) — A Minnesota Marine corporal killed in action last week in Korea has been described by a Marine Corps general as "among the truly great patriots of our country."

At the age of 12, Tommy Johnson of Ihlen had offered to join the Marines in 1942, saying "I am not afraid of danger."

"I am sure that marines all over the world will be proud to stand with me tonight in saluting your son," Major General MacQueen told Mrs. Gerald Johnson of Ihlen by telephone.

Corporal Johnson had written his parents that he was injured by shrapnel on September 7. By September 14 he was back in action. The Defense Department informed his parents that Tommy was killed in action just three days later, on September 17.

Back in 1942, when Tommy was only 12 years old, he offered his services to the Marine Corps. Tommy wrote the commanding general of the Marine Corps base at San Diego:

"I am 12 years old and not afraid of danger. When I heard how the marines defended Wake Island, I decided to join them if I can."

Tommy was made an honorary corporal at the time and a complete marine uniform was sent to him. Soon after he was 18 he became a marine.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have received no details of their son's death.

Messages Carried By Freedom Train

MUNICH, Germany, Sept. 27 — (AP) — The engineer and the dispatcher of the "Freedom Train" that brought 31 Czechoslovakian political refugees into West Germany released huge balloons early Wednesday carrying messages to their Communist-controlled homeland.

The balloons were launched at 2 a. m. from a lonely spot in northern Bavaria, only three miles from the Czechoslovak border.

They were released by engineer Jaroslav Konvalinka and dispatcher Karl Truksa, the first of 4,000 carrying 2,500,000 messages to be sent up by radio free Europe to tell the people of Czechoslovakia the true story of the "Freedom Train" dash across the border on Sept. 11.

"Dear Countrymen," say the messages, "don't believe that any American agents had anything to do with our escape."

Girl Baseball Stars Play at Park Tonight

Proceeds Go to Stadium Day Fund; Recreational Area

Tonight Sedalia baseball fans will have an opportunity to see the game played as girls play it. Two All-Star teams of the All-American Girls Baseball league will clash on the Liberty park diamond in a benefit game for the Stadium Day drive.

Sponsored by Chiefs
The teams are being sponsored by the Sedalia Chiefs Ban Johnson club as its contribution to the fund to build a recreational area adjoining the Stadium project. Although baseball will not be played in the stadium, the proposed project will have a tendency to increase interest in various sports and incidentally assist in rebuilding baseball interest in Sedalia.

Pitcher Dottie Mueller

Twenty-four young ladies of the league are to play in the game. They are divided into two teams, the Blues and Whites. Their playing is just as heated as if they were in an all-league contest. They provide much baseball entertainment and work just as hard at the game as the men.

Miss Dottie Mueller, hurler for the South Bend, Ind., Blue Sox has been selected as one of the pitchers for the Sedalia game. She had a pitching record of 10 wins against two losses last season. She hails from Cincinnati, Ohio, and is a veteran of seven years play.

Four with the American Girls "A Must on Any Schedule"
"The girls game should be a must on any baseball fan's schedule," declared Pat Peniston, former sports editor on the Marcelline News, who saw the teams play at Hannibal Tuesday night.

Miss Betty Wagner of Bolivar is the only Missouri girl member of the All-Star group. She will see action during the game.

Emery Ellsworth, well-known public address announcer at the park, will announce the game and introduce various persons who will be in attendance and interested in the Stadium Drive.

The Lineups:
BLUES — Marilyn Jones, c; Janet Wiley, 1b; Marge Wenzel, 2b; Jean Faut, 3b; Barbara Payne, ss; Doris Sams, lf; Betty Wagner, cf; E. Roth, rf; J. Rumsey and R. Stevens, pitch.

WHITES — Rita Briggs, c; Dorothy Mueller, 1b; Mary Carey, 2b; Betty McKenna, 3b; Dolly Pearson, ss; Mary Dailey, lf; Jane Stoll, cf; Sue Kidd, rf; Lillian Faralla, Gergette Vincent and Lou Arnold, pitch.

Russell of SMU Rates Ohio State Tops in Football

Dallas, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Coach H. (Rusty) Russell of Southern Methodist turned prophet today—he said Ohio State would beat his team by at least three touchdowns Saturday.

There is no prospect of an upset like the Methodists staged last year, the SMU coach declared.

"They may be a little short on manpower," he said facetiously. "They only have about 50 members of last year's squad back. Maybe we better lend them some men."

Warming up to the subject, Russell said: "They're really ready for us and they have what it takes to give us a first class licking. Why, you know, they have more experienced men than I have men on my entire squad."

The SMU coach said he personally rated Ohio State No. 1 in the nation "and I don't think anything will happen Saturday that will change that."

Garver's 19th Victory: 7-1 Defeat of Tigers

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Ned Garver, the St. Louis Browns' one-man pitching staff, was only one game out today from that elite mound society of a 20-victory season.

Little Ned, getting the edge these last few days by the Browns' management in its efforts to boost him into the top pitching fraternity, crushed the Detroit Tigers, 7-1, here last night for his 19th victory against 12 losses.

Garver expects to make his bid for the 20th victory in the closing game here Sunday against the Chicago White Sox.

8 THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Thurs., Sept. 27, 1951

Oklahoma A&M Unhappy Over Chances at Mizzou

STILLWATER, Okla., Sept. 27.—(P)—There's little to be happy about at Oklahoma A. and M. college after the first game of the football season jolted the Aggies to the realization it takes more than wishing to have a good team.

Coach J. B. Whitworth, who has done miracles with the little material available, says his 1951 edition badly beaten by Arkansas, 42-7, last Saturday.

Things look dark when the Aggies leave today for Columbia, for a game with Missouri Saturday.

Last year, Whitworth's first at A. and M., the Aggies upset Arkansas and Texas Christian in their first two games although there were only 30 players on the squad.

Whitworth had double the 30 out for this year's team but they're small, and the squad lacks the talent that some of the more glamorous clubs are able to attract.

To add to Whitworth's worries, he lost his only seasoned quarterback in last week's opener, Bob Steele, whom Whitworth expected to spark the club, suffered injuries to both knees and likely will be out for the entire season.

Wayne Johnson, another veteran back, was out last week with a bad ankle hurt in practice and if he gets to play Saturday, it is not certain whether he will be handicapped.

Fullback John Grabko was the bright spot in last week's loss, doing a tremendous job of running against a giant Porker line and getting off some good kicks against a rushing forward wall.

Don Babers, a talented but inexperienced sophomore, took Steele's place when he was forced out of the game and made a creditable showing. He probably will start in the Missouri game. Dean Seaman, a sophomore, will start at left half after he gave a good account of himself in his first college game last week.

The only bright spot in the Aggies' defeat was a fleeting 21 minutes of offensive power, when the club swung from its T-formation and went into a spread. Filling the air with passes, A. and M. marched 91 yards to score its lone touchdown in the closing seconds of the first half.

STILLWATER, Okla., Sept. 27.—(P)—The Oklahoma A. & M. squad, about 36 players, is leaving here today for Columbia and Saturday's game with the University of Missouri.

The varsity had only light workouts yesterday but the second and third teams scrimmaged against the freshmen. Coach J. D. Whitworth said Wayne Johnson probably won't be able to play as his leg is still injured, but John Bussey, who started in the right half-back slot last week against Arkansas, will be ready to go.

Top Rated Tennessee's First Test Saturday
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 27.—(P)—Tennessee's rating as the nation's No. 1 team in collegiate football gets its first test here Saturday against Mississippi State.

The outcome of the game between these two Southeastern conference rivals should provide a good line on whether Tennessee deserves its top pre-season ranking in the Associated Press poll.

Mississippi State, despite its mediocre record of four victories and five losses, had one of the finest defense teams in the country last fall.

Saints to Match Air Attack With S-C Ground Game

Friday night's gridiron clash between Smith-Cotton's Tigers and the St. Peters Saints of Jefferson City at Liberty park may turn out to be a battle pitting speed and a sharp passing game against size and a well-balanced ground attack.

Coach Ralph "Stub" Dow's charges possess size and the ground attack. St. Peters has a small, speedy team with a potent aerial game.

In practice sessions this week Coach Dow drilled his boys on the Saints' passing patterns and running plays. He warned the Tigers repeatedly that the Saints have one of the best backfields S-C will encounter all season.

Saints a T-team
St. Peters used the T-formation in their two previous engagements, both of which they won. The Tigers operated out of the T against Marshall and used some single-wing plays Friday at Kemper.

Smith-Cotton's huge forward wall probably has caused St. Peters' Coach Gene Hart the most concern. His starting line averages about 148 pounds, guard Pete Brenneke topping the list at 168.

Last week the Tiger line pushed the Kemper Yellow Jackets around like dummies, allowing Kemper no net yardage rushing and marking up 22 on the loss side for the military eleven.

The Saints have a definite edge on S-C in the passing department with their fine quarterback Jimmy Rackers doing the pitching. It was Rackers who tossed for two TDs in the opener against M. M. A.

He also led the ground attack in their win over the Missouri School for the Deaf. "Bill Arnold, the Tiger quarterback and "Buck" Bennett his understudy, are both capable overhead men but the Dow offense seldom gives them an opportunity to display their talent.

Depth a Visitor's Problem
The Saints, who have a thin, 24-man squad, may also find the Tiger depth to be the vital point. S-C's starting team should average nearly 170 pounds while the visitors will weigh in at about 145 pounds average per man.

Nevertheless, a small team with a top passing attack has upset the dopsters before and although Smith-Cotton is larger, the Saints possess the passing game, which make the contest a most interesting affair.

Joe DiMaggio's Biggest Hope Is to Win 10th Flag
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)

Joseph Paul DiMaggio has a personal stake in this pennant bid of the New York Yankees. It might be his last.

"It still goes what I said last spring," said DiMaggio. "This might be my last. I haven't made up my mind yet."

Extra-Brewed to be Sugar-Free!

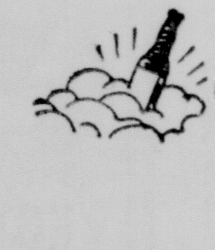

That's why Stag Beer is so SMOOTH... so DRY!

not sweet... Stag—long ago—developed costly extra steps to eliminate unfermented sugar. There's no sweetness to hide true beer flavor.

not bitter... Stag's extra steps brew in smoothness—brew out bitterness. There's no unpleasant after taste—just true beer refreshment!

mellow + light... It's the extra-brewing that makes Stag so sparkling clear, so mellow and light—so satisfying, as a truly dry beer must be.

just right! Most folks agree that Stag tastes better than any other beer. Why don't you enjoy its can't-be-copied smooth dry flavor, too?

Brooks' Big Test Has Roe On Slab Today

Giants Idle While Bums Have Chance To Widen the Lead

By Ed Corrigan
Associated Press Sports Writer

The desperate Brooklyn Dodgers, who have seen their once-mighty 13 1/2-game National league lead dwindle to just one game, go into today's big test against Boston's Braves with Preacher Roe (22-2) — their stopper — on the mound.

The New York Giants, panting down the Brooklyn back in the mad chase for the flag after winning 35 of their last 42 outings, will spend the day watching and waiting. They don't get back into action until Saturday against Boston.

Actually, the Brooks are in an advantageous position and the Giants will have to get the breaks to win the hunting. If the Giants win both their two games against the Braves, Charlie Dresen's chances then will have to win three of their four remaining contests.

Should the Giants falter once, Brooklyn will need only two triumphs. And if the Giants should lose both, the Dodgers will need only one victory.

No Chances on Hurlers
Dresen is taking no chances on his pitching rotation. "It's got to be Roe," he said, "for we've got to keep winning. I'm not expecting anybody to help us by beating the Giants. We've got to help ourselves. Carl Erskine will start for us tomorrow. I don't know who will go Saturday, but it will be Roe again Sunday if we need the win."

Yesterday's 15-5 conquest of the Braves did a lot for the Dodgers, even though the Giants came right back at night and polished off the Philadelphia Phillies with equal emphasis, 10-1. For one thing it indicated the Brooks have not cracked up completely after their double defeat by the Braves Tuesday night.

For another thing, it showed that Don Newcombe, who had been trying to win his 19th game for a long time, again could be trusted with top assignments.

Yanks Lose to A's
In the American league, the New York Yankees made no progress in their efforts to sew up the flag. They were completely ineffectual against the slants of little Bobby Shantz and dropped a 4-1 decision to the Philadelphia A's.

So the combination still is two for the Yanks—two triumphs or two defeats by the Cleveland Indians, who were idle yesterday. The Yanks have five games to play and the Indians only two. The Tribe winds up the season's business with single games at home against the Detroit Tigers Saturday and Sunday. The Yanks play all five of theirs against the Boston Red Sox.

BoSox Could Get Tie
Casey Stengel's men have only one worry about the Sox now. With their 7-3 loss at the hands of the Washington Senators last night, the Beantowners can't possibly win the pennant. If they win all six of their remaining games, and the Yanks lose all five of theirs, Steve O'Neill's team will tie.

In the only other major league game, St. Louis Browns hung up a 7-1 conquest over the Detroit Tigers behind Ned Garver, who now has 19 victories to his credit for the last place Browns.

Navy Will Try, After All, to Use Platoons

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 27—(AP)—Coach Eddie Ederlatz changed his mind today and is going to try to squeeze out platoons from his Navy football squad of 39.

Up until this week, he had been planning to demand double duty of everybody except a few backs and offensive center Bill Bryson. Now he's decided to stretch the material as far as practical into offensive and defensive units.

'Lippy' Sure to be Candidate For Coach of Year Honors

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27—(AP)—Win or lose in the pulsating National league pennant race, Leo Durocher of the amazing New York Giants is certain to be a leading candidate for manager of the year honors.

Although he refuses to take any credit for the incredible surge of the men from Coogan's bluff, Durocher's part in the Giant success story can't be minimized. Even Leo's bitterest critics, those who said the "Lip" deserved his year's banishment from baseball a few years back, are begrudgingly giving the "devil his due."

"Don't write about me," said Leo in the dressing room after his Giants slaughtered the Philadelphia Phillies last night 10 to 1, and pulled once again within one full game of the league leading Brooklyn Dodgers.

"The success of this ball club is due to the 25 men who comprise the squad. They never quit. They have fought hard. Always remember that the players make the manager, not the manager the players. All I do is decide who is going to pitch and name a batting line up. Then I go out to the third base coaching box and shout myself hoarse."

Leo was very serious about the whole thing. He was determined that all the credit go to his boys.

If the Giants win the pennant, it probably will be because they are the most relaxed ball club under pressure in the National league. Durocher sets the pace.

The Giants look loose on the field. They are making great plays in the clutch. And in the clubhouse, they're not excited. After the Phillies' game, the boys came in and quietly went about the business of getting dressed to make a train for New York. There were shouts of "nice pitching Larry," to Jansen, the righthander who had just picked up his 21st victory. And Monte Irvin, whose double, triple and 23rd homer sparked the attack came in for some pats on the back.

Durocher merely shouted, "swell going fellows. We're still alive."

Giles Has Loop Presidency Offer

CINCINNATI, Sept. 27—(AP)—Warren C. Giles, Cincinnati baseball man, today accepted the presidency of the National league.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27—(AP)—It was up to Warren Giles today; whether to accept the $40,000-a-year job as National league president, and the prestige that goes with it, or continue on in his well paid position as president of the Cincinnati Reds.

National League owners all want the 55-year-old Giles for a successor to Ford Frick, who a week ago was elected baseball's commissioner after Giles stepped out of the running. Frick, National League president since 1934, succeeded A. B. Chandler to the $65,000 a year commissionership.

Akins Wins a Split Decision Over No. 1 Contender, Dawson
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27—(AP)—Virgil (Honeybear) Akins of St. Louis jumped into the fistic spotlight last night with a split decision over the No. 1 lightweight crown contender, Freddie Dawson of Chicago.

Dawson threw more leather but Akins, ranked No. 5, seemed to do more damage. Akins weighed 136 1/2 and Dawson 137 1/2.

Judge Al Graf gave the nod to the Chicago Negro 52 to 48, but judge Fred Connell and referee Bob Ingham each voted 52 to 48 for the local Negro.

Akins scored a knockdown in the sixth round, catching the 25-year-old Chicagoan off balance. Dawson waited for the eight-count on one knee.

Sooner Coach's Crying Towel Dripping Wet

Wilkinson Squad Opens Its Season Saturday at Home

By Ed Q. White
KANSAS CITY, Sept. 27—(AP)—Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson finds his Sooner squad doing everything the wrong way with their football opener just a couple of days away.

But that's not unusual. Last season Wilkinson shook his head and voiced doubt predictions during early practice sessions and Oklahoma charged on to the national championship. In previous years it was much the same.

Wilkinson eyed his squad at yesterday's workout and observed: "I don't think a good football team will look as poor as we did today just three days away from a game. I think we are less prepared to play a game than at any time since I have been at Norman."

The early-season gloomy outlook apparently has helped Sooner teams in the past.

Teams Win 38, Lose 4
During Wilkinson's four years as head coach at Norman his teams have won 38, lost four and tied one for .904 per cent.

Coaches, newsmen and fans have picked Oklahoma to again head the list in the Big Seven conference this season.

William and Mary, Oklahoma's Saturday foe, whipped Boston 35 to 24 last week and drew a description of "big and rough" from Sooner scouts. In their one previous meeting, William and Mary defeated Oklahoma 14 to 7 at Norman in 1942.

Two danger spots in the Sooner situation are injuries to key players and the possibility that Oklahoma make the mistake of looking past William and Mary to the Oct. 6 clash with Texas A. and M.

Concentration on defense and injury troubles were the two top items at most other Big Seven schools yesterday.

Nebraska Anti-Aerial Drill
At Lincoln, coach Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers put in a long pass defense drill in preparation for Saturday's opener with Texas Christian. Glassford said it appeared likely that Cliff Hopp, a key linebacker, may miss the game because of an elbow injury.

At Ames, defense work against both ground and aerial attacks was emphasized and coach Abe Stuber said his Iowa State Cyclones looked a "whole lot better." Iowa State meets Kansas Saturday in the opening conference tilt.

Winter, Hoag Out at K. U.
Kansas will be hampered by injuries. Wint Winter, starting pivotman, will be sidelined, and ace halfback Charlie Hoag probably will not play. Winter sustained a concussion in the T.C.U. tilt. Hoag is suffering from a groin injury.

Kansas State coach Bill Meek, preparing for Iowa university Saturday, was forced to limit yesterday's work to a light drill because of new injuries. Charles Farinella and Austin Gentry, number one offensive tackles, will not see action against Iowa. Two offensive guards, Jack Lorenz and Al Lum-mio, also may be idle.

Tigers Stress Defense
General pass defense came in for a strong going over at Columbia as coach Don Faurot sought to plug the gaps in his Missouri squad. The Tigers play Oklahoma A. and M. Saturday at Columbia.

At Boulder, the accent was on offense but illness and injuries continued to slow Colorado. Full-back Merwin Hodel was out again yesterday because of a recurrence of influenza. Colorado meets Northwestern Saturday.

The tournament will be started at 9:00 a. m. and registration for teeing off will continue up to 11:30 a. m.

It will be an 18-hole medal play event with the winner and runner-up receiving trophies.

Preston anticipates between 20 and 30 young players on the fairways and greens during the morning play. Arrangements have been made to serve lunch at the club house for the players.

Bill, The Battling Bass
SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont.—(AP)—Bill is still guarding his home even though his wife and 5,000 sons and daughters have left.

Bill is a six pound male bass and his home is a few feet in front of the dock at the forest ranger station on Lady Evelyn Lake in the Temagami district north of here. The rangers first noticed Bill when he set up housekeeping there recently.

With his tail he swept a yard-wide area of water clear and built his nest. His mate arrived and soon Bill was guarding thousands of eggs.

He chased everything. The rangers say the supply plane now moors on the far side of the dock because Bill chewed chunks out of the floats. They caught Bill twice while fishing and twice they set him free to return to his vigil over the eggs. After he was caught the second time the rangers just gave up fishing.

KUALA LUMPUR—(AP)—Fifty-one Communist terrorists, regarded as key men in the Malayan jungle war against the British security forces, have been killed since Jan. 1.

A spokesman for the British director of operations said "more and more leaders have been killed because police and military patrols are daily armed with more accurate information" on terrorists' jungle hideouts.

PENANG, Malaya—(AP)—The last batches of Japanese war criminals in the Federation of Malaya have been sent to prisons on Singapore island for eventual transfer to Japan. All are to continue serving their long prison sentences in Japan.

The number going to Japan from Malaya and Singapore totals about 120. Prisoners taken to Singapore from Malaya included Japanese Captain Terate Isamu, who was head of police in Penang during the Japanese occupation. He was sentenced to life imprisonment by a British war crimes court.

Jailed Song Writer Desires To Repay Those He Swindled

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Prisoner in the Allegheny county workhouse hopes tinkling tunes written in his cell will repay 180 home-hungry victims of his $212,000 housing swindle.

Whether they will depend on Raymond E. Reynolds' ability to sell the songs.

Reynolds, 52-year-old former builder serving a ten-year sentence asked the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph in a letter to help him peddle the compositions. He added: "I don't want a penny for myself. My greatest desire is to pay back those people from whom I obtained the money."

Homes Were Never Built

He was convicted in the county courts of accepting down payments on homes which were never built. But he will be tried later in federal district court on charges of using the mails to defraud would-be home buyers—mostly veterans—in several states.

Reynolds faces prosecution in Chicago for swindling more than $120,000 from some 60 veterans in 1949 and 1950. The Cook county state's attorney's office said Reynolds, using the name of Robert E. Reed, accepted deposits ranging from $1,772 to $2,000 from house-hunting veterans.

Reynolds' tunes are romantic but all the romance has gone out of his life. His first wife, Pearl, divorced him while he was a fugitive. During the 22 months he was in hiding, Reynolds married Maureen Jones of El Dorado, Ark. He said that marriage was annulled.

Newspaper Receives Sample

The once-dapper contractor submitted a song to the newspaper as a sample. It was entitled "Defiant Heart, Oh, Make Her Hear My Plea." He said it took him a week to compose the music and lyrics. "I have written about 50 songs," his letter related. "But this is the first time I have tried to sell them."

Reynolds declared he didn't want sympathy and added: "There's nothing else I can do to pay back those people. My intentions were good when I went into the housing business but I got stuck with $85,000 in land and that was the beginning of the end. I only had $600 left when I left Pittsburgh."

He was arrested in May of 1950 after a nation-wide search which ended in Los Angeles.

Tornado Kills Six Persons

WAUPACA, Wis., Sept. 27.—(AP)—A roaring tornado ripped through Waupaca county in central Wisconsin last afternoon, hurling six persons to their deaths. Another tornado struck in Columbia county to the south some 30 minutes later, killing one person.

Among the Waupaca county dead were five members of one family. That tornado struck at approximately 3:45 (CST) according to the smashed watch on one of the victims. The Columbia county twister hit approximately 100 miles to the south at about 4:30.

The violence capped a day of general rain and high wind in the state.

REED CITY, Mich., Sept. 27.—(AP)—One woman was killed and three men were injured by a tornado that blew in the concrete wall of a tavern in the village of Bitley last night.

Crushed to death by falling debris was Mrs. Edith Brackney, 67, of Flint.

State police said the men suffered only minor injuries.

Uses Pitchfork In Store Holdup

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A bandit tried something new this week—he used a pitchfork as his weapon while holding up a dry-goods store.

The bandit, a Negro, got $64. Joseph Longo, 60, owner of the store, said the man warned as he left: "Don't you come out of the store or I'll use this on you."

The bandit then fled down the street with his pitchfork.

Germ Warfare Major Worry Of US Agency

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A potential new defense against germ warfare was set up by the public health service Wednesday. The agency organized an "epidemic intelligence service," to help investigate disease outbreaks that are beyond the control of state and local health departments.

Twenty-one new public health service medical officers were assigned posts in the new unit, at stations in 12 states. They recently completed an eight-week training course at the Atlanta headquarters of the agency's communicable disease center.

Always A Possibility

Said Oscar R. Ewing, federal security administrator, in a news release: "There is always the possibility that a potential enemy may seek to employ biological warfare."

"As we know from peacetime, an intelligence scheme which will promptly report outbreaks of disease would be invaluable if 'BW' were employed."

Ewing said the newly-appointed officers will investigate individual cases of "significant" communicable diseases, especially those of importance in interstate quarantine.

They also will act as health service agents in the enforcement of interstate quarantine regulations, and will be on call for epidemic aid anywhere in the nation at the request of state health officers.

Atlanta Doctor In Charge

Dr. Alexander D. Langmuir, Atlanta, is in charge of the new service.

The disease intelligence stations, and the officers assigned to them include:

Communicable disease center (CDC) headquarters, Atlanta—Dr. William Clark, Berkeley, Calif., and Dr. John T. Gentry, St. Louis, Mo.; CDC field station, Kansas City, Kas.—Dr. Harold M. Nitowsky, Denver, and Dr. J. Thomas Grayston, Chicago.

Blue Cheese Embargo, Not Red Jets, Keeping Denmark Awake Nights

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—By jet plane the Communists could be over Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark, in exactly ten minutes. However, blue cheese and Korea, not fear of sudden attack, are keeping the Danes awake nights, according to Ole Bjorn Kraft, Denmark's foreign minister.

Kraft, 57, shot five times by the Nazis during the German occupation of Denmark, is tall, vigorous and admits he still likes to dance despite his old wounds. In an exclusive interview in New York's Drake hotel, he told me America's recent shift in foreign trade policy had "shocked her Danish friends."

"In August, your Congress suddenly drastically curtailed imports of cheese from all countries," he explained, spreading his hands in a gesture of bewilderment. "Unless that restriction is removed in December, you will prevent us from earning two million dollars next year on our blue cheese."

"Denmark desperately needs those dollars for her defense," he added.

Denmark, a dairy country, produces many fine cheeses, particularly blue. On the advice of American ECA experts in Denmark, Kraft pointed out, the Danes began in 1948 to export her blue cheese to the United States to earn needed dollars. By 1950, we were buying around six million pounds a year.

Kraft, who was a member of the Danish delegation to the UN in 1946, is in North America for the Atlantic Pact conference. Although he stressed his country's gratitude for Marshall Plan aid, he added that cheese export restrictions had caused "some degree of bitterness."

"It is hard for us to understand why the United States shuts off a way we can earn dollars to pay back our debts to you," he said. "You are sending us arms to build up our defense against Red aggression, yet you now do not let us earn dollars to help pay for them."

He called attention to President Truman's and the State department's warning to Congress that limitation of cheese imports would weaken Denmark economically at this critical time. "Even though Mr. Truman was not successful, his understanding and plea for us has helped lessen our bitterness," he added.

Before the outbreak of the Korean war, Denmark was spending 60-million kroner a year on defense. Today the figure is about 700 million kroner.

OLE BJORN KRAFT: His Danish friends were shocked.

"That is putting a terrible strain on our economy. We must be able to sell our products to dollar block countries if we are to remain strong."

"England used to be our best customer. But the cost of producing our food has gone up much faster than the prices England will pay us for it today," he said.

Denmark's need for coal is acute. "Before the war, we imported 80 per cent of our coal from England," he said. "But today she can spare us only a trickle. So we are forced to get it from Poland. There is no other place. To pay for it we must send some of our products to Poland, but we have shipped them nothing contrary to our Atlantic Pact agreements."

Kraft also plans to visit Washington, where he hopes to explain "Denmark's position out on the rim of democracy, only a few miles from the Russian garrison near Lubeck, Germany."

"We would be the first to feel an attack on the democratic world. Our part . . . would be to delay a thrust toward the northern flank of Europe. We might be destroyed in this delaying action. But Denmark was occupied during the last war. We know what it was like. We are determined not to let it happen to us again," said

Memories Are Recalled by Visit To Old Home

It had been many years since Mrs. Ida May Collins Bergess of Long Beach, Calif., had visited the old home near Longwood where she had many happy childhood memories. There had lived her two uncles, William and Jeff Collins and her aunt Sarah Collins, all now dead.

While growing up in Kansas City one of the bright spots in her childhood had been her visits to Longwood and now, at 75, she wanted to see the old home again. She made the suggestion to her son, E. V. Dutch, as they were on their way to New York City for a trip and he consented to bring her by Sedalia.

They stopped at the Terry hotel and went to Longwood to see if things looked the same. They didn't. The old log house was covered with some other material on the outside but the two men who lived there were glad to have her come in and look around. The inside wasn't the same either. Things had changed. The place was not the same as when it had the touch of Aunt Sarah's hand and the home had deteriorated with the years, but it still held memories and a place in her heart.

To revive some of those memories Mrs. Bergess tried to find some of the friends of her family—somebody she knew in those days and she found Killis Hienronymus who once lived in the neighborhood and who now resides with his daughter, Mrs. Dimmitt Hoffman and Judge Hoffman.

Mrs. Bergess stated that her cousin married a cousin of President Harry S. Truman.

Reach $29,039 in Bond Sales

Pettis counties purchased enough series E, F and G savings bonds from September 3 to 15 to meet 16.2 per cent of the goal assigned the county for the first Defense Loan campaign.

This campaign, which opened September 1, will continue through November 15. The Pettis goal is the former newspaperman who played a prominent part in the Danish underground. He glanced out at New York's skyscrapers. "And I hope to convince your leaders that my country cannot possibly hurt your economy with a few million pounds of blue cheese," he said, adding with a dry smile, "even though it is very good cheese."

Period to Send Parcels Overseas

The period of October 15 to November 15 again has been designated by the Post Office Department for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for men in the armed forces overseas.

This is not the only period in which these parcels for the servicemen and women may be mailed. It is the promise of the postal officials, however, that mail sent in the time limit will be delivered by Christmas. No such promise can be made for parcels mailed after November 15.

For size and weight requirements, and postage costs, those wishing to send the parcels should see their postmasters. Certain articles are prohibited from the mails and in some cases custom declarations are necessary. These things, too, may be cleared with the postmasters.

Greeting cards should be sent by November 15 unless sent via airmail. The airmail cards should go out before December 1.

Church Joins in Bible Reading

Among the thousands of churches which will cooperate with World-wide Bible Reading, from Thanksgiving to Christmas, is the East Sedalia Baptist church, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Walter P. Arnold. Millions of Bible readers in many languages join in using the same selected list of Scripture passages for this period. President Truman annually heads up a national committee of laymen who sponsor the event.

Additional observance of Universal Bible Sunday is being planned for December 9, the Rev. Arnold said.

Among the other national sponsors will be: Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, R. G. LeTourneau, J. C. Penney, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and Helen Keller.
